To the Voters of the Fourth Judicial Circuit

---

Fellow-Citizens :

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit. Four years since you elected me to that position, and I take this opportunity to return my thanks.

During the time I have held the office, I have ever endeavored to discharge its duties honestly, conscientiously and faithfully, and in administering the law to parties litigant have always guarded the public interests by using such expedition and dispatch as was consistent with the constitutional rights of the parties, the purpose of the law, and the public good.

In offering myself for re-election I can say that you have tried me and know who and what I am, and whether I have been faithful in the discharge of my trust. If you believe I am not wanting in integrity, capacity or ability, you have the assurance of the past that if re-elected, I will discharge the duties of the office to the best of my judgment and ability.

Respectfully,

J. M. PITTMAN.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., April 29th, 1878.
